Handwritten musical notation on a page with a yellowish background. The notation is written on three staves. The first staff begins with a treble clef and contains a series of notes and rests. The second staff contains a complex arrangement of notes, possibly representing a chordal accompaniment or a specific instrument part. The third staff contains a few notes and rests. The notation is somewhat sketchy and appears to be a preliminary draft or a study piece. There are some faint markings above the first staff, possibly indicating a key signature or a tempo marking.

Two empty musical staves, each consisting of two five-line systems, positioned below the first set of notation.
