Dear Dr. & Mrs. Simonsen

This pc. was addressed but not written last week & so I will hasten now in this New Year to wish you all that is good - health & length of years & the power to go on with your work & good deeds for many a day to come. My husband goes on working & tries to finish as many of his special works & articles as he can. Many of these were begun long ago. He regrets that he will be unable to attend the Breslau festivity. The time of year is not suitable for travelling after him. Three years pass & such journeys are no longer an easy undertaking. He will miss meeting such old friends as may be there & the other workers in the same field who have sprung from the same soil of learning.

I just discover that I have written in English! I am sorry but I am sure you understand this too. - With our warm & friendly greetings & sincere good wishes for this year & the year to follow -
Dear & very yours
