Jose Ratner Esq.

New York. Broadway 61.

Dear Sir,

No doubt you have not had neither the letters nor the cable-grams which I have sent you during the war. Now your mother requests me again to write anew to you and to your brother Abraham in Barcelona, telling you, that she is living in very painful circumstances. The war has ruined her totally and she and the children are living in the greatest need. And to the loss of your Rev. father and the loss of all her goods comes the anxious feelings about you and your brother of whom she knows nothing so many years. I therefore ask you to let me have good news for your poor mother.

Yours truly
