Dear Sir,

On the 25th Sept. last year I applied to you for assistance in tracing the whereabouts of my Mother, Rosa Lichtenshtein, who must at that time have been a refugee in Russia. At the same time I enclosed a Treasury Order (No. 47220) for £1. which I desired should be sent to her if possible. Up to the present I have had no news and I shall therefore be very glad to hear from you that some effort has been made in the direction indicated.
Thanking you in anticipation

Yours respectfully
A. Jacobs

P.S. My last known address was:
Radzyzi, Gub Wlaskawaska
Pole
