My dear Prof. Simonsen:

In sending you, as per instructions from the Jewish Colonization Association of Petrograd, letters and communications intended for certain provinces, it occurs to us that you are put to an expense for postage and other incidentals, which we have no right to impose on you. Please be good enough to advise us if, with every batch of communications, we should send you the equivalent postage, and if so, please specify the approximate amount.

Yours very truly,

AS. HG
