HENRIKSHOLM,

VEDBÆK.

Dear Prof. Simonson Excuse English! Thank you very much indeed for the separately bound copy of your contribution to the Jubilee No. of the 'National Tidende', which we are very pleased to possess in that form.

We enjoyed reading the account of your happy childhood - and I am sure that writing it must have given you great pleasure, enabling you publicly to pay a grateful tribute to your dear ones, and to give the general public an insight into the harmonious beauty of a truly Jewish Home.

My husband and daughter will I hope, have conveyed my hearty good wishes to Mrs Simon seen on her 70th birthday, which your ^{stair} unfortunately prevented me from delivering in person.

With renewed thanks

Believe me

Very sincerely yours

Carathelid

P.S. I 'revelled' in your article in B. T. a fortnight ago. — I doubt whether any British paper would have accepted it — or any British Jew have possessed your courage in expressing what most true Jews must feel — so forcibly! All honour to you and to Denmark!
