Dear Rabbi

Thank you for your kind letter
accompanying
your booklet —
which arrived together with my weekly

III, 61
"Jewish Chronicle"
containing an account of Stein-
schneider's birthday
etc—; so I was able to read your article
with interest;—
though you will not be astonished at my saying— I could only understand

half of it, and that not the Hebrew part!
I hope that Mrs
Simonsen found
the crossing less
bad than she anti-

culated, and that you will both enjoy
your stay in London — Should you
see any of my friends
kindly remember
me to them —
With 'Wilsen' to your wife
Believe me
Sincerely yrs.
C. A. M. M. M.
