HENRIKSHOLM,

VEDBÆK.

Dear Professor

Thank you

very much for your kind letter of sympathy on my dear

father's death —

and I must ask you to thank Mrs Simon-

sen too, for her friendly

message to the same effect. My poor father had been a sufferer so long, that for himself
one cannot help feeling the end came as a welcome release; — but for us children — the breaking-up of the
dear old home is inespressively sad. I should have liked to join the mourning family

at the funeral, but we could not well leave Bertha alone; we are now going to send him to a farm at Dickersdal, as I foresee we cannot well keep him at home here now. — Yes I have had my fair share of trouble lately — but as you rightly say - one's personal griefs sink into insignificance next the sorrows of our race - of our Russian co-religionists. - I am afraid things are getting worse and worse - and one can only watch the barbarous inhumanity

in helpless inactivity.
I personally have little faith in the 'Yts' etc. -

This letter is rather a sad one - in which to include New Year wishes - but yet the season demands it - and I therefore conclude
