Dear Prof. Simonson,
I am very much obliged to you, I. A. Graham.
With cordial regards,
I am truly wishing of it.

Dear Prof. Simonson,

Unfortunately I am not able to send an essay. I had prepared notes for an essay on the "fifteenth century illustrations to Josephus," but I then received a notice requiring me to choose a subject connected with Prof. Juttmann's lines of research. Hence I abandoned my original idea, and expected to prepare another essay. But in the meantime the awful events which have happened have made it impossible for me to concentrate my mind on work of this kind. So, deeply to my regret, & chiefly owing to the notice as to restriction of subject, I am reluctantly prevented from being associated in the honour to be shown to a scholar so
