To the officers and directors of the Brainin's Committee.
Gentlemen!

I thank you very much for the great honour which you are kind enough to bestow upon me in choosing me as a member of your Jubilee-Committee. But I fear that my name shall be of no use for you, as there are here very few, if any, persons who would buy a collection of 30 volumes, even if the author is so gifted as my friend Mr. Brainin. When every volume will cost, as I think, 3-4 Doll., it should be a capital in danish crowns as the valuta now is. And for the other countries I doubt whether my name has any value at all, when you have so great names on your list as those I see.

Yours very truly
