Dear Sir:

I am greatly obliged by your letter of August 15 and by your offer to cooperate with the Jewish Quarterly Review.

I cordially agree with you as to the undesirability of using the Review for long continued articles, and shall try to avoid this as much as possible. I hope that the Review will be made up in great measure of the finished product of the scholar's work and not of his note books. However, for some time, this may be the only medium for the publication of Jewish scientific work in the English language and I would not like to make the rule too hard.

You speak of your suggestion as unasked advice. Let me assure you that your advice or suggestions at any time will be most heartily welcomed. Again thanking you for your offer of cooperation, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Doctor D. Simonsen,

Skindergade 28,

Copenhagen.
