THE JEWISH
QUARTERLY REVIEW

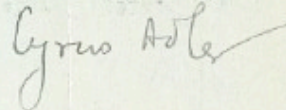

October 1, 1912.

Dear Sir:-

The Jewish Quarterly Review which was published in London under the editorship of I. Abrahams and C. G. Montefiore for twenty years, has been transferred to this country and is published by the Dropsie College for Hebrew and Cognate Learning under the editorship of the President of the College and of Doctor S. Schechter, President of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America and a Governor of the College. The Review is devoted to the interests of the Bible and its literature, Rabbinical literature, Semitic languages and literatures, religion, theology and subjects cognate thereto. The first number of the New Series was published in July 1910 and the third volume is now in course of publication.

I am writing to inquire whether you are desirous of becoming a subscriber to the Quarterly. If so will you be good enough to fill out and return the enclosed card. Will you be good enough at the same time to indicate with which Volume you desire your subscription to begin. The Quarterly can be furnished from Volume 1 Number 1 of the New Series.

Very respectfully yours,

To Doctor D. Simonsen,
Copenhagen, Denmark.
