Professor. D. Simonsen
Copenhagen.

Dear Sir & Friend.

I wrote you a few Stearns' Lacks, which we this must be in your possession, trust this will meet you and your dear Wife in the enjoyment of health. My dear Father I am pleased to say, is much better, and was able to go to the Synagogue last Sabbath, but is still weak as his great age has to do with it. Enclosed goes Draft amounting to One Hundred & Twenty Eight $5\frac{1}{2}$ Dollars for my poor girl, regretting not being able to send more.

I hope you will soon be able to go and see her, and give me some good reports of her. I pray God she could restore her to her health again. Must now conclude thanking you for all the kindness and attention you and your dear Wife bestow on my poor unfortunate girl, which I will ever remember with deep gratitude. I am quite anxious to hear from you if she read and understood the letter I sent her, in that case will write her again. Does the Doctor entertain hopes of her recovery. My dear Father begs to tender his best compliments to you and your amiable Wife, he is getting on, but still weak, but a man of 88 years cannot be too strong. Again

Thanking for your kindness and trouble and hoping soon to hear from you. I am your friend with kind greetings to you and wife
G. C. Delville
