Dear Dr. Simonsen,

I was very glad to get your letter and hope that Nauheim will do you good, as it always does.

No doubt you will take an opportunity of seeing the Exhibition at Leipsig. I am afraid the Jewish Section has been muddled up. Dr. Brann has a talent that way.

So far as the young lady you recommend is concerned, I shall be glad to give a good reference if anybody applies to me, but I am afraid that I do not know of any quarter in which her services will be required. I am out of touch with Girls Schools.

Yours sincerely,

E. Adler

Herrn Professor Dr. Simonsen,
Bad Nauheim.
