Professor Nielsen

Dear Sir.

I am exceedingly sad to be obliged to say, although my great efforts to repay you my debt of the sum of 20 Rds, which I promised to do so on the 1st October, is for the present utterly impossible, because I have not got back my pupils which I expected, some of them have gone out of the country to some foreign-land others, are themselves out of work so that it is a hopeless case for me.

II

I tried my best to get some translations in Danish, English French, German & Italian, but that too proved to be successful.

I have done all one can do to earn more than what I do, so that I could repay the debt I owe you.
I hope you will accept my sincere excuses, and trust me one or two months yet, perhaps I will improve

in getting some more pupils hoping that Professor will favour one with this demand one or two months longer and I hope by then to be able to do so

I am

Dear Sir

Yours very sincerely
Rosa Green Finckel
