THEODORE SEDGWICK, Speaker of the and fhortly after the Tutland (between which and the guard fhip Dannebrog, the first English ship, being 74 guns, kept itself fast by means of an anchor) obeyed the signal by a well directed and well supported fire. The remainder of the fhips then came up, and fome of them having failed in front of the fhips that first cash anchor, and others behind them, they formed a close line ; which, as it extended only north of the line of battle fhip Leeland, engaged only two-thirds of the force entrulted to me. There being no fire from the Three Crown batteries, nor from the fhips *Ele*phant or Mars. and very little from the frigate Hielperen.

" In about half an bour after, the engagement become general. Twelve line of battle fhips, of which one was of 80 guns, and almost all the reft of 74; and from fix to eight frigates were on one fide. On the other fide were feven guald fhips, one of which only was of 74 guns; the reft of 64 and under; two frigates and fix fmaller veffels. The enemy had every where two fnips for one of ours ; and the guard fhip Provefacen had, befides the Rear-Admiral and a ship of the line, two frigates against her, which were raking her from ftem to ftern, without her being able to return a fhot.

"Were I only to relate, in the manner of an hiftory, what your Royal Highness has seen, as well as the citizens of Denmark and of Europe; that this which I fhall call an unequal conteft, was maintained with unexampled bravery for the space of four hours and a holf; that the fire of the power engaged with us was already to exhaulted, that fev-eral of the Englith fhips, and among the reft, that of Admi-ral Nelfon, fired only fingle fhots; that this hero, at the ve-ry moment, and during the very heat of the battle, fent a flag of truce on those to require a ceffation of hoffilities :-When I have to add the account I received of two English Thips of the line having fruck, but that they hoifted sheir flags again, as foon as they were reinforced by other fhips : Under those circumfrances, I may be permitted to fay, that the ancient fame of Denmark in Naval wars has this day those forth with incredible luftre, that I have to thank Heaven for having had all Europe as a witnefs to the fame. "Befides, the balance turned againft Denmark in a quar-ter where it was not likely it fhould. The flops that were first, and to the fouth of those most feverely attacked, and even the Pereofferen had almost all their going dimonut and even the Provofteen, had almost all their guns difmount-ed, and were obliged to yield to a fuperior force.

"About half palt II, the Dannebrog line of battle thip, clofe to which Admiral Nelfon lay for fome time, was fo much damaged, that I went with my flag on board the Hol-ficin, but inflead of this the Dannebrog fought under the fireamer that had been holfted. At the end of the battle, the had 20 men killed and wounded. fhe had 270 men killed and wounded.

" About half paft two the Holfein was fo thattered, had fo many killed and wounded, and lo great a number of guns difmounted, that I caufed the threamer to be hoifted infread of my flag; and as the Zeeland had all her rigging that away, I betook myfelf to the Three Crown Battery, from which place I commanded the north wing which was flightly engaged with Admiral Parker's division, until I received at four o'clock the orders of your Royal Highnels to keep in the mill of the battle.

" Then, that part of the force which lay to the fouth of the Three Crown Battery, as far the frigate Hickpenen, fell tend alone with a fuperior force, cut her table and got tend alone with a luperior force, cut her table and got mo-der way. The thip flows after having received leveral thets, and he mafts and rigging fluctured, and left a number of men in killed and wounded ; has brought back into the Crown by the gun hests Nybor; and Agger/buss, and the Dannebrog flortly after the battle blew up. "Belides the injury which the enemy evidently faftain-ed, I am convinced that their loss in men and in their flips was neverally ble. And the advantees of the conunt was very confiderable. And the advantage of the conquer-ors confift only in ufelefs fhips, in cannon mostly Tpiked, and powder thrown overboard.

The number of the killed and wounded cannot as yet be given; but I fuppole it may amonnt to 1600 or 1800 men. Among the killed, I am grieved to name the Commanders of the fhip Infolffretten, and the frigate Gronenburg, Capt. Kurab, and First Lieut Hauch, with feveral other brave officers. Among the wounded is F. Brain, the Commander of the Dannebrog, who has loft his right hand.

" I want language to express my fence of the unexampled • bravery of the officers and crews. The battle itfelf can alone deferibe it. OLFERT FISCHER.

PARIS, MARCH 24. A packet has arrived at Tou-lon from Egypt, which it left the 4th of February ; and brings difpatches from Gen MENOU, at Cairo, to 25th January. The Justice and Egyptienne frigates, with troops, arms, &c. arrived at Alexandria from Toulon, in January. The French army is well fed, clothed, paid and d fciplined ; and retain their ancient enthufrafm. The Egyptians are friendly to the French, and pay their taxes with exactness. Mourad Bey con-tinues faithful and amicable; and Djezzar Pacha refufes to acknowledge the anthority of the Commander in Chief, the Grand Vizier, whole army is wafting by famine, ficknefs and discontent. Commerce begins to flourish both in the Mediterranean and Red-Sea ports. The French manufacture cloth, hats, dimities, filks, excellent handkerchiefs, wax-cand'es, beer, and leather. Some coffee plantations are already laid out:

Politicians affert that his demife will have a confiderable influence on the future doftinies of Europe ; this is merely conjectural, and does not fo immediately concern the Republic of France.

LONDON, APRIL 17. Our readers will recollect that in March. Lord HAWKSBURY, in a note to the Swedish Baron VON EHRENSWARD, on the subject of the Northern Confederacy, faid, " His Majefty has already repeated his determined and unalterable Refolution to infift upon the acknowledgement of the principles of those maritime rights which have flood the teft of ages, and have been confidered the best fecurity for the JUST RIGHTS and privileges, as well of NEUTRAL as belligerent powers." As this declaration was made before the events of the Emperor's death, and the Copenhagen battle, it cannot be fupposed that Great-Britain will now recede from it ; and of courfe, if the Northern Rowers perfift in their fystem, the war in the North is not fo near a termination as many imagine.

APRIL 18. One cannot be furprised that the defenders of the Northern Confederacy, now happily dead of an apoplexy, fhould feek confolation under that circumflance and the calamity which has happened to their friends in Copenhagen. We think, however, that they lean upon a reed, if they have no better hopes than those affigned in their leading paper yefterday upon an ex-preffion in the Ukafe of the new Emperor of Ruffia, This Prince avows his intention to follow the fystem of Catharine the Second ; he will therefore, fays this print. forbear taking any decifive part in the quartel of France and other European powers.

Now we are compelled to bid the Opposition defpair their charm, for certainly the Czar ALEXANDER does not mean that he will follow the fyftem abandoned by the late Empress ; but the system upon which the wa afting when death put an end to her glorious reign .-Had they poff-fled, as upon a former occasion, a Repre fentative of Opposition at the Court of St. Petersburgh they would have known that her Majefty had agreed to march forty thouland troops against the Republicans, and that this army was only the vanguard of the forces the had determined to employ in the suppression of the revolutionary principles and unprincipled ambition which threatened every power in Europe. It will be no eafy. matter, therefore, to convince any man, that to follow her fystem is to forbear taking any decifive part in the quarrels of Europe.

The only courts in Europe which go in mourning for the death of PAUL I. are those of Berlin and Paris.

CONNECTIOUT. CONNECTIOUS. HARTFORD, May 18. The shoust stellos of this Some was holden Thursday laft .-- The House chose CALVIN GOD DARD, Elq. Speaker. A fermon was delivered before the Executive and Legislative bodies, by the Rev. Dr. TRUMBULL, of North-Haves. The votes for Gavernor were counted, when the whole number was found to be 13.307; of which His Excellency JONATHAN TRUMBULL, Efq. had 17,156-Mr. LAW, the Candidate proposed by the Wallingsford, thankfgiving caucus, had only 1056 For Lieutenant Governme JOHN TREADWELL, Efg. bad 0,566, of 1147P Ephraim Kirby, Elq. the Jacobin candidate had 2038. The old Affants had an equally honorable support, as had ANDREW KINGSBURY, Elq. Treaturer ; an SAMUEL WYLLYS, Elq. Secretary. In no one inftance within our recollection, has this anniverfary produced more marks of fincere and fubftanion .- The re-election of ALL the officer ial gratific of government, by a number of votes altogether unexampled, after fuch violent, and indecent attempts, to ren der them odious to their fellow-citizens, and at a time, when if ever, it was to be feared, that the public mind might become in a degree bewildered, is a leffen to jacobins, which muft certainly have fome tendency to make them despair of revolutionizing Connecticut. They will learn at least, that the people of the State have not looked with an indifferent eye, upon their attempts to fubvert their government, under the cloak of " Thankf. givings," and civic feafs. At the prefent election, all honest men shewed figns of unfeigned pleasure at the complete success of federalism in Connecticut, over the children of democracy; as well as at the high proof of the attachment of the citizens to their " fleady habits." The concourse of people was unufally great, and the numbers and appearances of the Clergy, have not been at any time more respectable, and venerable. It gave univerfal pleafure to fee fo many of these pious, and worthy men at a festival, which is never more honored than by their general attendance .- At the fame time, let not the people suppose themselves secure, unless the vigilant fpirit which is now fo happily awake, can be kept awake. Beings, which have every thing to gain, and nothing to lofe, will forever be bold, and industrious; and they are too often fuccefsful. LET THIS TRUTH NOT BE FORGOTTEN.

It is faid that Prefident JEFFERSON has refused to issue Commissions to some of the Judges appointed by Mr. ADAMS. We know not if this charge be just : If it is, we shall only ask, whether it is not " feeling power, and forgetting right."

DAVID L. BARNES, Elq. is appointed and com-miffioned as Diftrift Judge of Rhode-Ifland.—It is TRISTRAM BURGIS, Elq. the afting Diftrift Attorney who is the temporary officer. Mr. BARNES' political character is unexceptionable.

The Aurora of the 18th fays, " Mr. MADISON occupies apartments in the Prefident's house at Washington." Query ! Does the Prefident of the United States keep lodgers? Or is it the intention of the Secretary of State to Spunge the United States out of house rent ?

Citizen PICHON, Charge des Affaires of the French Republic, is on a visit to New-York. The conduct of this gentleman, fince his refidence in the United States, we learn, has been wholly unexceptionable.

THE NAVY. The Effex frigate, of 32 guns, Capt. PREBILE, has left New-York; and the Congress frigate of 36 guns, Capt. SE-VER, has left this port, for the Naval Dock, at Washington. Two young perfons, (Mr. JASON FAIREANKS, and Mils ELIZA FALES) of that place, who for fome time have had a warm attachment to each other, but which unhappily soon after Fairbanks appeared at Mr. Fales', covered with blood, and shewing a bloody knife to one of the family faid, it was the knife with which Eliza had killed herfelf that fhe then lay dead in the thicket, and that he had attempted to deftroy himfelf, but was unable. The relatives of the young lady haltened to the fpor, and found her wel-tering in blood, fpeechlefs and expiring.—Her body was much mangled, having been ftabbed in feveral places, her arm and hand were wounded, and her throat cut in a most flocking manner. Her cries were heard near a quarter of a mile by fome of her female acquaintance. Her compan-ion, though he walked to the houle, had his throat cut, and various stabs in his breast, bowels, &c. He is, however, yet alive; and was on Thursday committed to gaol, to take his trial in August next. The remains of the young lady were interred on Wednesday lake Belinn Mary 23.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

WE the fubferibers, having feen Mr. Watau's New Syf-tem of Mercanile Arithmetic, and being fatisfied that it is better celculated than any yet publiched, to fit a youth for the butinefs of the Compting-Houfe, cannot but with it an exten-five circulation. The happy elucidation and extended appli-station of the common rules. together with the many original sation of the common rules, together with the many original improvements, while they accomplifs the ftudent for com-merce, are also extremely well adapted to affift and inform the merchant, the mariner, and the trader in their various occupations.

Dudley A. Tyng, Ebenezer Stocker, William Bartlet, Sannel A. Otis, jun. Triftram Coffin, Mofes Brown, William Wyer, jun. Richard Bartlet, jun. William W. Prout, Misbael Little.

Bofton, May 16th, 1800. WE the fubferibers, having examined Mr. WALSH's New System of Mercantile Aritmetic, and being perfuaded that it is better calculated than any we have met with, to qualify young men for admittion into compting-houfes, we with that it may have an extensive circulation. The clear exemplification and pertinent application of the common rules, together with the many ufetul additions and improvements which it Contains, will render it extremely uleful for the merchant, the mariner, and all other trading claffes of fociety. Marfton Watfon, John C. Jones, John Codman, Stephen Higginfon, John Lowell, jun. Jofeph Ruffell, Arnold Walles, jun. Jonathan Jackfon.

Salem, OGober 71b, 1800. WE the fubfcribers, merchants of Salem, convinced of the neceffity of rendering the forms of bufinefs, the value of coins, and the survey of coins, and the nature of commerce more familiar to the United States as a commercial people, do approve of the Mercanille Arith-metic of Mr. Walsh, and recommend it as calculated to fubferve in the best manner the instruction of our youth, and the purpoles of a well-informed merchant.
