Dear Dr Simonsen,

I received your interesting letter some time ago, and am publishing the information you so kindly sent in the January number of the "Jewish Quarterly Review", (of course in your name). May we hope that you will contribute an article to our pages? Something readable would be very acceptable. If you think favourably of course you may write in any language: German or French by re: id. 104

of this suggestion, it would be best to let me know your subject first, so as not to clash with any other promised articles.

I should much like to have more articles on ethical subjects: but of course this invitation is quite general, and the choice of subject would be left to you, except that I should like to know beforehand what it is.*

Hoping to hear from you soon,
and with cordial regards,

I am yrs. vry. truly
L. A. Bahans.
