94, Rue Saint Louis

Paris, le 22nd May 1919.

To: Information Bureau
in regard conditions of Jews in Poland
Vesterbrogade 87,
C O P E N H A G E N.

Attention: Mr. V. Grossman.

Dear Sirs,

We have received the several communications sent to the Delegation of American Jewish Congress with regard to present conditions affecting our brethren in Poland. Copies of the same have been handed to the general Committee of Delegations here and have been used by our own and other delegations, as the basis of information in our efforts to assure the safety and welfare of our suffering people.

We trust that you are sending copies of all these communications to the Headquarters of the American Jewish Congress in the United States, the address of which, as you know, is Room 144, 1 Madison Ave. New York City, U.S.A.

Yours very respectfully

(B.E. Richards)

Secretary to Delegation American Jewish Congress

Hotel Continental, Paris.
