Access to the Netarchive for external applicants
- Applicant declaration

DET KGL. BIBLIOTEK
Royal Danish Library

Applicant's name

Title

Address and contact (research institution)

Email

Mobile no. (for text messages with passcode for login)

The application concerns the following research project (project name (objective/description)

The project period commences on   and ends on

The project involves the following persons (project participants)

Can we publish your name and the title of your project? – check box

- Consent can be withdrawn at any time. The Royal Danish Library's policy on data protection and personal data can be seen here: https://www.kb.dk/persondatapolitik

- Access to the Netarchive is given for the project period according to the Danish Legal Deposit Act and Copyright Act.

- Terms for access:

- This application can only provide visual access to the Netarchive. If you need delivery of material for your research project, a separate application is required.

- Data made available via access granted through this application cannot be stored.

- Access is personal, and can not be passed on to a third party. If others need access in connection with the same research project, a separate application is required.

- The Copyright Act shall be observed.

- The GDPR rules shall be observed, especially Section 10 of the Data Protection Act.

- The personal data to which access is given can only be used for the stated purpose.

- Personal data cannot be used for any other purpose at a later date.

- Personal data can only be disclosed if the Danish Data Protection Agency has given permission to do so in accordance with Section 10 (3) of the Data Protection Act.

- Activities conducted in the Netarchive are logged.

- Checks will be performed in the event of a denied access attempt.

- In the event of doubt whether the terms are being complied with, access will be barred until a satisfactory explanation is obtained.

- In the event of any breach of the terms, access to the Netarchive will be barred permanently.

- THE APPLICANT undertakes to comply with these terms.

- Access will be provided in principle to the Netarchive's Citrix GUI (PROD)

NB: if you are a project participant, the project manager must also sign your application.

Place and date   Place and date   Place and date

Applicant (project manager)   Applicant (project participant)   For the Netarchive